Notice Regarding Acquisition of Shares of Francfranc Corporation (Conversion to Subsidiary)

AIN HOLDINGS INC. (the "Company") hereby announces that, at a meeting of the Board of Directors today, the Company has approved a resolution to acquire all the shares of Francfranc Corporation (Headquarters: Minato-ku, Tokyo; President and Representative Director and Executive Officer, Kazuyuki Sano; "FJP") ("the acquisition") and make it a subsidiary. Details are as follows.

1. Purpose, reasons and method of share acquisition (conversion to subsidiary)

The AIN HOLDINGS Group ("the Group) operates a dispensing pharmacy business and a cosmetic and drug store business that seek to play a key role in regional communities. In the dispensing pharmacy business, the Company operates a chain of dispensing pharmacies all over Japan, and together with Group companies, is actively opening new dispensing pharmacies and utilizing M&A to expand the business. The Company is also working to provide community-focused healthcare services in all regions of Japan, such as through home-based healthcare and continuous monitoring of patient medication in partnership with medical institutions, and by enhancing the primary care capabilities of its pharmacists and dispensing pharmacies.

In the cosmetic and drug store business, the Company operates the chain of AINZ & TULPE cosmetic and drug stores. AINZ & TULPE aims to be a unique and comprehensive beauty retailer that satisfies customer needs with an always-fresh lineup of cosmetic and beauty products sold via stores that offer a fun shopping experience. The brand is targeting further growth and aims to clearly stand apart from other beauty retailers with a lineup of original products focused on cosmetics.

FJP will become a subsidiary of the Group after the acquisition of all its shares by the Company. Since its establishment, FJP has operated a business selling interior goods and sundries aimed at a wide range of customers, mainly women in their 20s and 30s, centered on the Francfranc flagship brand. Through the operation of 152 stores in Japan and nine stores overseas, and e-commerce, Guided by its mission, "VALUE by DESIGN: creating designs that make your everyday life more fun." FJP offers urban and sophisticated lifestyle proposals through its interior goods and sundries.

AINZ & TULPE and Francfranc have stores in similar markets and target customer segments with similar values, but they are complementary in terms of product lineups and retail categories. The Company believes that FJP's addition to the Group will generate synergies by leveraging the strengths of both companies. Specifically, the Company envisages the following synergies.

(1) Cross merchandising

With strengths in different product categories, AINZ & TULPE and Francfranc stores will be able to display their respective in-house products, offering a wider choice to customers, improving customer satisfaction and increasing sales per customer.

(2) Strategic store development

AINZ & TULPE and Francfranc stores are compatible, as they are located in station buildings and commercial facilities, primarily in major cities, and target similar customer segments. This offers further opportunities for business expansion through the opening of a wider range of different store formats, such as strategic joint stores in large commercial facilities.

(3) Development of appealing products using shared know-how In line with their mission of offering lifestyle proposals, AINZ & TULPE and Francfranc have both focused on developing products that influence customer values. By sharing their product development know-how, both companies will be able to create products that offer even higher levels of satisfaction.

In this way, the Company believes that combining the complementary strengths of both companies will improve customer service and enhance the corporate value of the Group.
